Mrs. Margaret M. Semmler
Editor and Publisher
Tinley Park Times
Dear Mrs. Semmler:

We wish to express our strong disapproval of articles published in the last two issues of the Tinley Park Times advertising and describing a fox hunt to be held in Highland Park. This so-called sport is nothing but sheer cruelty to animals, particularly when your article states, some of the foxes "got away with pellets in their hides." They are thus left to suffer and probably die slow deaths after being chased and tormented by humans who are presumed to be more intelligent than the animals they torture.

Worse still, the ads urge more men to come and join the "fun," thus encouraging and helping this sadistic and most cruel practice to continue. Of course farmers must sometimes kill foxes to protect livestock but in these hunts, those who are poor marksmen can only use an animal, join in as well as good shots and the whole affair is arranged purely for enjoyment, not merely as an aid to farming.

Please, let us have no more such items in your newspaper. We have heretofore enjoyed it very much but are sure that if "sports" in the nature of cruelty to animals is advertised and advocated further in its pages we will most certainly discontinue our subscription.

School News

Mokena School News

The children in first grade were thrilled to have Mrs. Capel visit our room one afternoon this week. She heard them read and sing.

Another day first grade visited the big school to see strip films about primary stories. We saw "The Lion and the Mouse," "Little Black Sambo," "The Little Red Hen" and "Hansel and Gretel."

The children in the second grade at Mokena school wonder why they needed such a large box for valentines. Well, now they know the reason why. There were over one thousand, five hundred valentines given out in the second grade this year.

Guess you would need a pretty big box!

The fourth grade is studying the United States, the state names and the general location of each state. This knowledge they will transfer to a large bulletin board where they have drawn a map of these states.

The fourth and fifth grades of Mrs. Lehmann's room made Valentines Feb. 11, for our mothers and fathers. We made envelopes for them. We had many pretty and colorful ones.

The sixth grade is having a contest between the boys and girls on the Friday spelling tests. The group with the highest percentage of perfect tests wins. The girls won the first time.

We are trying to improve our penmanship by paying more attention to it in our daily written work. Many of our papers are being given an additional grade for penmanship.

In art, Mr. Mucci drew a silhouette of each pupil, and we gave it a valentine effect by pasting valentines in the background.

The seventh grade is proud of its art work now on exhibit in the school corridor. A flashing bull fight from Spain, a majestic mountain peak in Alaska, or a peon enjoying his siesta in Mexico are just a few scenes to be enjoyed because of the talent displayed by the boys and girls.

The use of magnets and their relationship to electricity is being studied in science this week. An excellent movie explaining the practical use of magnetism was enjoyed by the class.

Some of the students have already received answers to the letters which they sent to various manufacturing companies in connection with the reports that they are doing.

The eighth grade had a Valentine box and Richard Englehardt, Mickey Werner, Jean Flory and Madeline Selnik were appointed to decorate the Valentine box.

More than 600 plants in the United States are engaged in the job of processing bituminous coal before delivery to consumers. Clean coal competes better with other fuels.

The Ohio River, already a great coal carrier, will in five years' time be carrying as much or more coal for public utility use as it now carries for all-pub-coal before delivery to consumers.

Enroute they stopped in New Orleans, La., to call on the Tillman Gladney family, former residents of Orland. Since their visit, Mr. Gladney has been transferred in his business, to Corpus Christi, Tex., where the family will move.

The Loebe family made their headquarters at Miami Beach where they enjoyed dips in the ocean. They visited the Henry Wolske Jr. family, who are visiting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Willard at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. While browsing around in Miami Beach, they met Mrs. Florence Yunker and her sister Betty Hosman. The Willards formerly resided in Palos and Joliet and have many friends in Orland Park.

On their trip home they encountered some icy weather in Alabama. They stopped at Lawrence, Ind., to visit their brother, Charles Wolske and family.

Norman Paul Utne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Utne, of 143rd St. and 80th Ave., has enrolled at Valparaiso university, where he is a junior majoring in business, in the College of Arts and Sciences.

The Brownie troop celebrated their first anniversary with a party Feb. 10 in St. Michael's church dining hall. The members presented three little plays, "The Three Bears," "Three Little Kittens" and "Goldilocks" for their guests. Mrs. A. Yang and Mrs. Russell Bettenhausen are the leaders and were in charge of the celebration.

Karl Smith who has been a student at University of Illinois, has transferred to the John Marshall Law school in Chicago, for his second semester in law.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Smith enjoyed a trip to El Paso, Texas where they visited their son Larry and wife, Larry is stationed at Ft. Bliss, Texas where he is attending a special school for guided missiles. They were also guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Estand, who reside in El Paso. The Smiths and Estands motored to Juarez, Mexico several times. En route, Mr. and Mrs. Smith stopped at many points of interest in several States, all in all had a very enjoyable vacation trip.

The newly elected officers of Laurel Camp 1796 RNA will be installed when the members meet Thursday evening, Feb. 24 at 8 o'clock in the home of Mabel Mancke, 17631 Otto St., Tinley Park. Assisting the hostess will be her mother, Olive Rust and sister Roberta Bettenhausen. Members desiring transportation should contact Bernice Reish, Orland 226M. Members urged to attend.

DAIRY SERVICE TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING FEB. 22

Will County Dairy Service will hold its annual meeting Tuesday evening, Feb. 22 in St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church in Mokena.

This will be a dinner meeting with ladies being invited.

Dr. Karl Gardner of the dairy department of the University of Illinois will be the speaker.

Directors for the coming year will be elected. Present directors are Lester Schroeder, president; George Bovee, secretary-treasurer; Walter Lauffer, Geo. Beutel, William Schram and Julius Sewing.

Tickets are available from any director, the testers or at the Farm Bureau office in Joliet.

Student Council Of L-W Convenes

Marion Nelson, president of the student council, presided at the student committee meeting, of Lincoln-Way high school, on Feb. 10. Mary Lou Loebe gave her report on the National Honor society, and the following committee was appointed to help her: Andrea Ledebuhr, Nancy Bovee, Marilyn Boleman, and Everett Hauck. The Future Farmers of America was given permission to have a square dance March 11. Bill Noble reported that the total amount for the March of Dimes was $82.85. The meeting then broke up into smaller groups for discussion.

When the meeting was called back to order, Emogene Anderson gave the report of the social committee and also submitted the revised rules for social functions. Following this there was a discussion on the issue. Mary Lou Loebe reported on the National Honor society committee and said that the committee was to meet with members of the faculty which are Mr. Keeley and Miss Gillogly to discuss the matter further. The council decided to join the State group.

Girl's Athletic Assn. Of L-W Elects Officers

The Girls Athletic association of Lincoln-Way high school held their election of officers for this year. Elected were: president, Ardis Batson; vice president, Marilyn Boleman; secretary, Marilyn Cooper; and treasurer, Pat Boleman. They will hold their offices until May, 1955.

The basketball season has now started for the girls in G.A.A. Basketball teaches good sportsmanship and team work. They have been learning various skill practices such as the forward stride, the different passes and ways to shoot or a basket. After many sessions of practice they will choose captains and teams and start a basketball tournament.

Bowling will be available on Wednesday and Thursday in March. Miss Hartmen will be sponsor. If this turns out favorably, they will probably continue it into the month of April.

Leaders Club will help set up the basketball tournament and get in some practice in refereeing, umpiring, and score keeping. They will also help in teaching the different skills of basketball. Some of the girls who have had experience in bowling will help the beginners and help set pins.

At the February meeting the girls discussed the possibilities of having a play day, picnic, a banquet for future meetings.

The awards will probably be given at one of the meetings. They decided to have the nationals of the year they are to graduate for the first award and the emblem for the second. They will have to earn 75 points for the first and 125 for the second award.

Educational Tax Objections Filed By Railroads

County Supt. of Schools, Verne E. Crackel, has released a summary of educational tax objections for 1953, filed by railroads and one industrial firm, amounting to $17,162.39, the taxes having been payable in 1954. The total objections were almost double the $9039.75 in taxes objected to in 1952.

The amounts in question were paid by the tax payers to County Clerk Joseph Hartley in 1954. A special fund was set up for these moneys and will not be distributed to the school districts until the objections are denied by the county court. If sustained, the funds will be returned to the taxpayer.

ed, the funds will be returned to the taxpayer.

Mr. Crackel believes that some of these objections should be settled before they come to court, pointing out that if the court sustains the objections the amount indicated will be lost to the school district.

This area is particularly concerned with School Districts 159 and 210. The amount involved for school district 159 is $1218.20 and for Lincoln-Way high school district 210 the amount involved is $2603.00. The objection, in both cases, is the Rock Island railroad.

Mr. Crackel urged officials of the school districts involved to study the objections carefully. He said County Judge John C. Cowing will notify the various districts of dates they should appear for conferences with objectors, and urged them to prepare their cases as soon as possible.

A total of 10 organizations filed objection suits. With the exception of the American Steel and Wire Co., all were railroads.

Average depth of a U. S. coal mine underground is 190 feet.

Bremen Braves Beat L-W, 45-13

The Bremen Braves traveled to Lincoln-Way Monday afternoon, Feb. 7 and went home with a 45-13 triumph. Lincoln-Way got off to a good start when Woody Zitter decided his opponent 9-0. Woody never had any trouble although his opponent was much taller and about 10 pounds heavier. Lincoln-Way men were pinned in the next four matches and the Knights also forfeited one. Then Greg Brown won an exciting match from Overhang of Bremen. Greg came from behind to pin him in a great duel. John Weber returned to his winning ways by pinning Calza in the third period.

MORGAN PARK DEFEATED BY BREMEN, 62-52

Bremen high cagers eked out a 62-52 win over the Morgan Park Military Academy on the home court Saturday evening, Feb. 12.

In avenging an earlier defeat at the hands of the cadets, the Braves had to recover from a slow start and step up the scoring pace in the second half.

Opening play featured Bill Lindsay, recent member of the Chicago area Team of the Week, dumping in five field goals. These markers coupled with six more contributed by teammates gave the Braves a 16-14 margin in the initial stanza.

In the second frame the Bremen quintet could muster only 10 points but still managed to hold a slight 26-24 edge at intermission.

Al James hit a jump shot from out court with three seconds left in the third quarter to give the Braves a slim 44-42 margin.

Finding the range in the final frame, the Bremen five poured in 18 tallies and stopped the cadets' offense cold.

High point honors went to Bill Lindsay with 30 points while teammates Ron Gallina and Dick Graham added 9 and 6 respectively.

In a preliminary tilt the Bremen frosh-soph trounced the Morgan Parkers 55-30.

BREMEN CAGERS CLINCH SECOND CONF. PLACE

Bremen high cagers clinched second place in the Southwest Suburban conference by edging the Carl Sandburg Eagles 66-63 at home Friday, Feb. 11.

Leading 54-39 at the end of the third stanza, the Braves lost sight of the bucket while Carl Sandburg dumped in 24 markers.

In the initial frame Bremen outscored the Eagles 17-12 and added 19 tallies in the second period to hold a 36-27 margin at intermission.

Although the Braves hit 50 per cent from the field, they

Mokena Heavies Lose To Rockdale, 27-22 Lights Win; Settle Championship Feb. 19

The Mokena Heavies lost to Rockdale 27 to 22, Monday, Feb. 14. The defeat was the most costly of the season for Mokena as it dropped them into second place in the final conference standings. The teams had been tied for first place with one loss apiece. Mokena defeated Rockdale earlier in Mokena by 2 points. Monday's championship game was played in Rockdale. The final standings show Rockdale with 7 wins and 1 defeat and Mokena with a 6 and 2 record. Mokena's other defeat was at the hands of New Lenox. Last year the heavies finished 5th in conference play.

Rockdale's victory was assured by a third quarter spurt that out-scored Mokena 11 to 2. The first half was played cautiously by both teams and ended with Mokena on top 13 to 12. Lavezzi's two long baskets and 2 baskets each by Dina and Daugherty gave Mokena its lead.

Rockdale employed a press effectively at the start of the second half and 4 quick baskets resulted before Mokena could regain their poise. Daugherty's two points was the only score for Mokena during this period which ended 23 to 15. The final period was wild with a Mokena rally falling short and Rockdale playing with 6 men on the floor. It was too late for Mokena to overcome the tremendous handicap Rockdale presented and the horn sounded as Rockdale fans cheered their champions.

The lightweight game was won by Mokena 38 to 18. Rockdale threw a score at Mokena at the start leading 14 to 4 at the quarter. Mokena rallied to tie the score 18 to 18 at the half and then held Rockdale scoreless in 20 points themselves. Porick's 16 points were high for both teams. The victory kept Mokena tied with New Lenox for first place with 7 wins and 1 loss.

The championship will be settled Saturday, Feb. 19 at Lincoln-Way high school. The game will be played as a preliminary to the Lincoln-Way - Yorkville contest. Starting time is 6:30.

Electric utilities continue to increase the efficiency with which they burn coal, according to the Federal Power Commission which reports that the average October rate of consumption was down to 0.97 pound of coal to one kilowatt of electricity, a record low. In October, 1953, a year earlier, it was 1.03 pounds per kilowatt. In 1920, the rate was three pounds of coal to one kilowatt of electricity.

Illinois Bell Asks For Rehearing In Phone Rate Case

Forty-seven errors in the Illinois Commerce Commission order issued Jan. 15 denying any increase in phone rates, were cited by Illinois Bell Telephone company attorneys in an application for a rehearing of the case.

The application, filed with the Commission in Springfield, Jan. 21, stated the 47-page rate case order was "unlawful, unreasonable, arbitrary and capricious" and lacked necessary findings of fact to back up the conclusions. As listed in the application, errors in the order included:

Understating fair value of the company - the dollar amount on which a reasonable return should be earned. The Commission increased the fair value only $41,000,000 over its last finding (in 1953) despite the fact that net original cost increased $108,000,000 and reproduction cost less depreciation went up $79,000,000.

Fixing a lower rate of return for Illinois Bell than the Commission had set for other Illinois utilities whose businesses involve lesser risk.

Failure to consider the effect of increased wage costs.

Refusal to allow as a business expense all of the federal income taxes paid by the company.

Failure to include inflation's costs to the company in determining the rates to be charged.

Illinois Bell filed its request for a $24,900,000 a year rate increase

Public Instruction Officers Give Excellent Report on L-W

Mr. John K. Price, Asst. Supt. of Public Instruction, Springfield, and J. W. Lewis, Asst. Supt. of Health, Physical Education and Safety, recently paid a visit to Lincoln-Way high school. Their report, in part, which is very favorable, follows:

January 27, 1955

"Dear Mr. Chapman:
"In company with Mr. James W. Lewis of this office, it was my privilege to visit in the Lincoln-Way Community high school Jan. 18, 1955. This letter constitutes our report on this visitation.

"Members of the board, the administrative staff, and the people are to be highly commended upon providing such excellent facilities and such a diversified and rich learning program and services. The extensive site will no doubt be developed in such a way as to broaden learning experiences and the well-planned building facilities undoubtedly were designed to enable both youth and adults of this community to secure a very functional type of education in accord with present and future needs.

"Financial support appears amply adequate and the projected sale of working cash bonds will no doubt furnish funds to complete the auditorium and to provide certain desirable equipment now on order. The school is well-organized in that it appears that the administrator is making full use of the collective abilities, skills and interests of the staff. Operation was very smooth at the time of this visit.

"Much good instruction was

The Bible And Formosa

Four hundred years ago, my ancestor, the Rev. John Rogers, was burned at-the-stake in London, England on Feb. 4, 1555. To commemorate him and to add some current comments, is my desire today.

Bibles Were Smuggled Into England

The Rev. John Rogers was martyred for his work of translating the Bible into the English language and circulating this complete Bible in England. Tyn-dale, with the help of Coverdale, translated the New Testament and a portion of the Old Testament, as far as II Chronicles, when he was martyred therefor. Then John Rogers—under the assumed name of "Matthews"—completed the Bible in its entirety for readers in England. This was in 1537; and he did most of the work in Holland.

From Holland, the English imported flour, cheeses, and other odds. My ancestor arranged with the packers of the barrels and crates containing these food products to hide a Bible among the contents and thereby smuggled these Bibles into England. When he returned to England, about ten years later, he was arrested and imprisoned in the Tower of London. Finally, he was martyred at "Smithfield," where I have seen a bronze marker telling this story of his martyrdom.

Importance of Sacrifice

There are many lessons for us from the above experience. First, is the consecration of the priests and preachers of that day and their willingness to make any sacrifice, including their lives. Our unwillingness to sacrifice for our Church and Faith is a basic difficulty of the U. S. today. It is good to see church membership and attendance increase; but these figures mean little unless accompanied by a willingness to sacrifice.

Jesus never quoted statistics - He demanded that His followers be judged by their works of righteousness. I would go even further and say that the greatness of every powerful nation has been made possible by the people's sacrifice. When the willingness to sacrifice declined, the nation's economic strength declined along with its spiritual strength. In fact, the best U. S. barometer of our spiritual strength is the value of our dollar. It increases or decreases according to our willingness to sacrifice for what is right.

We Must Again Teach Bible To Our Children

The Second lesson applies to the great need of more Bible reading today. When I was a boy, most New England families were Bible-reading families with daily family prayers. We were all taught to obey Bible Teachings and to memorize them. I believe that we must again install the Bible as a family guide and as our national guide.

Atomic bombs will not save us, any more than the Chinese Wall saved China, or the Maginot Line saved France. This nation is depending too much on material defense. The more wealth we have, the better target we are and, through jealousy, the more enemies we will have. Only as we practice the Bible's Golden Rule, both in national and international affairs, can we hope to survive. The Bible is the only "Bomb" which can save America. Read Isaiah, Chapter 31.

What About China and Formosa? The Chinese leaders of today were largely educated in colleges founded by missionaries sent to China by the Christian churches of the U. S., England, and our other Western Allies. I have visited some of these Chinese Colleges and have seen the Bible being taught there to the brightest young men of China. These students were greatly impressed by Jesus' Teachings, especially by the Sermon on the Mount.

As these students matured and became acquainted with the way our businessmen and politicians acted, they truly wondered if we are a Christian nation. Students who came to New York, Chicago, and other large American cities for post-graduate work concluded that we are hypocrites. They returned to China saying that the Bible is a forgotten book with us. The Russian Communists told them that our missionaries used our Bible only to put the Chinese to sleep while we robbed China. President Eisenhower and Secretary Dulles - both Bible-reading men - are handicapped by this unfortunate situation. Fighting alone will not save Formosa. Formosa and the entire East can be saved only if we stop worshipping material success and atomic power and return to the Teachings of the Bible.

observed, involving extensive use of library materials, equipment and a wide variety of instructional techniques. Continue to encourage teachers to take advantage of every possible opportunity to make instruction meaningful. The staff displays a highly commendable professional attitude and the school citizen-ship observed at the time of this visit was excellent.

"The educational program includes offerings in all areas of learning and appears well-suited to the needs of both youth and adults in this community. Participation in the adult program is already rather extensive. The staff includes competent service in the area of curriculum and I was glad to learn that work, looking to a thorough evaluation of learning opportunities, has already begun.

"As stated on the Annual Report, Mr. Nickell, through his Committee on Recognition, will consider this letter of visitation, your Annual Report, the recommendation of your County Superintendent of Schools, and the operation of your school throughout the year in determining the recognition status of your school for 1954-1955.

"We enjoyed the visit and wish to thank the administrator, members of the staff and students for the many courtesies extended to members of our staff at the time of our various visits."

Sincerely yours,

John K. Price

Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction

Report on Visitation - Health, Physical Education and Safety

Facilities: Physical education facilities, when entirely completed, will be excellent. The divided type gymnasium is sufficiently large to allow adequate teaching stations for both the boys and the girls. Locker and shower rooms are of good size and excellent office space has been provided for both the men and women faculty personnel. It is understood that the outdoor play space is being developed as fast as weather permits. Additional recreational area is to be developed on the wooded land at the rear of the grounds. A swimming pool is to be built as soon as funds are available. A towel service is in operation.

Organization: Each student is assigned to a daily period (55 minutes) for physical education. Classes are scheduled by grades and a well balanced program has been laid out for a four year progression.

Comments and Recommendations:

1. Instructors are well trained and are carrying out an excellent program of instruction.

2. The inclusion of co-recreational rhythm activities in the program is highly commended.

3. The plans for camping type activities to be included in the program when the wooded area is fully developed will be an excellent addition.

4. It is hoped that the board will continue their plans for the building of a swimming pool at an early date.

5. The health clinic infirmary room manned by the future nurses has been very well planned.

"This Is Your Life" Staged at Mokena

Local Emcee Shows Great Talent

By Charles A. Singler

The annual banquet and social gathering (Fun Nite) of the Mokena Businessmen's association, and their wives was held in the Valley View restaurant Thursday evening Feb. 11 with 41 present, even though the temperature reading was 8 or 10 degrees below zero.

The group had the new Sun-Air room engaged for the occasion. A full roast beef dinner was served, and everyone was in a festive mood.

The tables were decorated to commemorate George Washington's birthday, with a little red hatchet and a flag upon each table, miniature flags in a large cube of styrofoam with a big flag in the center table. Place cards were in the form of a red hatchet, all the work of Mrs. Roy Richardson and her committee.

Following the dinner, Walter Welsch, president, extended cordial greetings to all and introduced Everett Cooper, cashier of the Mokena State bank, who had charge of the evening's program.

Mrs. Margaret Semmler led the group singing for the evening which carried out the thought of greetings to each one. Everyone greatly enjoyed the "solo" by Edwin Dunham.

Everett Cooper, who often watches the Ralph Edwards' "This Is Your Life" programs on television, thought, and the other members agreed with him, that it would be a smart thing to depict the life of one of the association's members, using the famed television show as a pattern. In pursuance of this there had been much behind-the-scenes planning during the weeks prior to the meeting.

Mrs. Margaret Semmler, publisher of the Semmler News-Papers, Mokena, had been chosen as the subject for the evening's entertainment, and it is doubtful if Ralph Edwards, himself, under the same limited facilities, could have done a better job than Everett Cooper and his fellow conspirators.

It should be said right here that the compiler and arranger of this program received great acclaim for the extensive planning and fact-gathering, from the date of the birth of Mrs. Semmler to the present time. He even succeeded in obtaining a photo-static copy of the front page of the New York Times which was issued on the date of her birth, May 18, 1889. He read various interesting items from the ads of this 66-year-old newspaper, which reflected the changes in prices from that day to this. For instance, ladies' hats, untrimmed, were priced at 29c, and trimmed, 84c. Ladies' night dresses, full yoke and double back, 49c. These were the prices in vogue by the "good old days."

A picture had been found and inserted in the "This Is Your Life" book showing the then Margaret Oestreich seated at the little telephone switchboard in the office at New Lenox.

Her marriage to the late William Semmler on Oct. 21, 1914 was covered in detail in this book of her life. The marriage took place in Zion Evangelical church in Joliet, after which they set up housekeeping on Midland ave. in Mokena. At the time her husband was employed with the old Joliet News. It was related how, two years later, they opened the new print shop in the building in which the newspapers are now printed, in 1917. Two daughters were born to them, Adeline and Ada, from whom much of this source material had been surreptitiously obtained.

Another phase of her life was covered when Mrs. Semmler became leader of Mokena Camp Fire girls. Inserted in the book were pictures of some of their activities, as well as a letter received by one of the members of this group, Mrs. Eunice Hacker Vally, now of New Lenox.

The print shop was operated from 1917 to 1919, when the first issue of the Mokena News-Bulletin went to press. "This was a big step forward in your life, Margaret Semmler, and of your husband, and as time has proved, it was a very successful one," emcee Everett Cooper observed, solemnly. Mr. Cooper then read a few articles from the first issue of the Mokena News-Bulletin. This first issue, by the way, which had been framed, was on hand at the speaker's table. From it Mr. Cooper read how Mrs. John J. Grogan was at that time postmaster of Mokena. In that issue was an advertisement featuring roast beef at 29c a pound. Various social events of the day were published, among which was the item that the Mokena Men's club would hold a moonlight picnic at their pavilion south of town, which is now Woodland Circle, and that Alfred Hatch who had been with the army of occupation in Germany had returned home, and Arthur Zumstein was the only Mokena boy in a foreign country at that time, this country being Siberia.

Mention was made that in those days the type of newspaper was set in Mokena and carried to Blue Island in suitcases, where the paper was printed. Mr. Semmler was assisted by Clinton Kraus, now the efficient section foreman of the Rock Island at Mokena, who, when he could not get a form of type to hold together poured glue over it, to make it stick.

Various incidents were recalled depicting the struggle the Semmlers had to get started in those early days, with here and there a ray of sunshine breaking through the clouds to cheer them on. Mention was made of Mr. and Mrs. Semmler building their new home on First st., in 1939, and how, during World War II, they sent over 700 free copies of their paper each week to the boys in this area who were in service. Pasted in the book was a letter from Michael Roberts, in New Guinea, thanking them for the paper, and another from Chuck Liess from North Africa. Nearly all the letters received from boys in far away lands during World War II were published in the paper, so other boys in the service would know where

Mr. Cooper read interesting news articles from that old issue of the New York Times, among which were the first skyscraper in New York, the Tower building, the first electric elevator put into operation in New York, the 980 ft. Eiffel Tower opened.

On this historic day when Mrs. Semmler was born it was recorded in this New York newspaper that Benjamin Harrison, former Union officer and standard bearer of the Republican party, became the 23rd president of the United States on March 4. President Harrison proclaimed unassigned land of the Indian territory to be thrown open to settlement under the Homestead laws of the United States. The omnibus bill provided for the admission of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana and Washington into the Union, and Montgomery Ward and Co., was now issuing two large catalogs each year.

Much time and expense was involved in compiling the data surrounding Mrs. Semmler's life, and typing it neatly in an attractive volume. Mr. Cooper read a letter received from a schoolmate of Mrs. Semmler's when they started school together at the now A. O. Marshall school in Joliet. In those days they had double desks. Writer of the letter was A. W. Johnson of Joliet. The letter read: "She was a very sweet girl, with a wonderful disposition." Other incidents of happy, carefree school days were resurrected, incidents long forgotten but which in this book were now made crystal clear, as though they happened but yesterday.

Margaret Semmler, the former Margaret Oestreich, the book noted, moved to New Lenox in 1906 when her sister, now Mrs. Clida Deadmore, was manager of the telephone office there. Margaret Semmler assisted her. Mention was made of where, prior to the move to New Lenox, Margaret Semmler had spent a year in bed with a heart condition, and the doctors said she would never do any hard work in her life.

their buddies were and what they were doing.

The death of William Semmler on June 8, 1946, was recalled, and how, following this, "the full management and responsibility of this business was taken over by Mrs. Margaret Semmler."

Other interesting events were cited, such as the marriage of Ada Semmler to Ramon Westlund and Adeline Semmler to Marvin M. Smith, and the birth of Mrs. Semmler's grandson, Dale William Westlund. The book included a letter written by Dale, which read: "Dear Grandmother: I love you very much, and please choose a toy Ford."

The only thing missing in the "This Is Your Life" of Mrs. Margaret Semmler, as put on by the Business Men's Association last Thursday night, was the brand new Mercury automobile that is usually awarded by Cole-Finder, of Chicago, to the Hollywood subject, but Everett Cooper and his fellow conspirators had thought even of this. At this point in the program Mrs. Semmler was presented a replica of the new Ford "Thunderbird," furnished by Cooper and Hostert, authorized Ford dealers, of Mokena. This toy, was of course presented to Dale the next morning, and he is the proudest little boy in Mokena.

As Ralph Edwards is in the habit of flying different members of the family of the honored one on his show, Mr. Cooper went to the trouble of securing letters from Mrs. Semmler's brother, Theodore Oestreich, Joliet, her sister Emilie Campbell, Seattle, Wash.; and her sister, Clida Deadmore, of Mokena, telling of interesting little incidents in her life. And, too, from her closest schoolmate, Mrs. Mabel Constance, who is now dean of Women at the Delta State college, Cleveland, Miss., and from Mrs. Eunice W. Thompson, president of the Illinois Women's Press association. Also a telegram from an officer of the Illinois Women's Press Association, Iillian F. Buckingham, of Chicago.

Final entry in Mrs. Semmler's book, "This Is Your Life," which she says she will treasure the rest of her days, was a large photograph of her holding a News-Bulletin as it came, folded off the newly-bought Duplex press, at the time of their "open house" celebration, a year ago last summer.

A second "This Is Your Life" presentation was given on this evening, which drew roars of laughter and applause. It was a short humorous skit of the life of Edwin Dunham, proprietor of the Dunham hardware company, Mokena. Master of ceremonies was Charles Swanson, assisted by Chester Ebert. It had gotten around town that Mr. Dunham was responsible for introducing the "crew cut" haircut in Mokena. To give the assembly an idea of how Mr. Dunham looked before he got his crew cut a floppy mop was draped over his head, giving him the appearance of a man with long curls, who had not seen a barber since he got out of knee-pants. After this bit of clowning, which gave a wonderful flourish to the evening's entertainment, get-well cards were passed and signed, to be sent to Mrs. Everett Cooper, who is in Silver Cross hospital recovering from surgery and to Mrs. Elmer Cooper, who has been quite ill, but is now recuperating at home.

After the performance, everyone went home in the below-zero cold, feeling they had spent a most heart-warming evening.
